

The “Communauté de Communes”

The Bourgneuf – Royère de Vassivière “Communauté de Communes” is made up of two authorities:

- the deliberative board, the “Conseil communautaire”, which manages ;
- the executive authority, the President who organises and carries out the Conseil's decisions/resolutions.

The President alone is in charge of the administration.

The people involved in the “Communauté de Communes” are introduced in this section, together with the many administrative documents needed to be informed of its activities: statutes, deliberations/resolutions, budget...
